Privacy Notice:

When you supply your personal details to this clinic they are stored and processed 3 reasons:

1. We have a legal obligation to maintain medical notes in order to provide you with treatment.
2. We also think that it is important that we can contact you in order to confirm your appointments with us or to update you on matters related to your medical care. Under the GDPR, this is known as Legitimate Interest.
3. Provided we have your consent, we may occasionally send you general health information in the form of articles, advice or newsletters.

We have a legal obligation to retain your records for 8 years after your most recent appointment. After that period you can ask us to delete your records if you wish. Otherwise, we will retain your records indefinitely so we can provide you with the best possible care should you need to see us at some future date.

Your records are stored;

- On paper, in locked filing cabinets, and the offices are always locked out of working hours.
- Electronically, using our booking system. This provider has given us their assurances that they are fully compliant with the General Data Protection Regulations. Access to this data is password protected, and the passwords are changed regularly.
- On our office computers. These are password-protected and backed up regularly.

We will never share your data with anyone who does not need access without your written consent.
